Dear Mr. Erdahl:

I am forwarding herewith the publication prepared by this Agency giving thorough coverage to the recent proceedings in Moscow of the 19th Congress of the Communist Party. It contains the Stalin article on "The Economic Problems of Socialism" and the proceedings of the Congress itself.

As I mentioned on the phone, we have at present only four copies, all of which are badly needed. It may be, therefore, that we shall have to ask for the return of this copy if the other three cannot satisfy current needs. In any case, I would greatly appreciate its return at the earliest time you can complete your review of it. The probability is it will eventually be printed, in which case we will be glad to supply you a copy if you want one.

Yours very truly,

LAWRENCE R. HOUSTON
General Counsel
